

Following the first release of the EPCglobal RFID Implementation Cook Book in September 2005, future releases are planned for every 9 to 12 months, with each release capturing topics relating to urgent industry requirements. Here is a list of the suggested topics:

GETTING STARTED

- Security
- High-Level Business Benefits

TOOLS

- Gen2 for “Dummies”
- More Detailed Vendor Profiles

MEASURING PERFORMANCE

- Template for identifying baseline/ control information
- Validation Process

PRACTICE BRIEFINGS

Tagging

- Beginners Guide to Case/ Pallet Tagging
- The RFID Tagging Guide
- Optimizing Tag Location
- How to define product categorization based on RF characteristics

Readers & Infrastructure

- Considerations for Conducting a Site Survey
- Mixed Tag Environments
- RFID-Infrastructure Placement

Applications, Systems & Processes

- Diagnostic/ Acceptance Checklist
- Scaling from Pilots to Implementation
- RFID Handheld Readers: Scope & Applications in RFID Implementation

REFERENCE MATERIAL/OTHER

Use Cases

More FAQ's

More Key Learnings

Regional Specific Information